Who should I contact if my child is unhappy at school?

First point of contact is always your child's tutor. The tutor will ask for support from the Head of Pastoral Care or other relevant teachers as necessary.

Can my child change tutor group?

The school seeks to create well-balanced tutor groups. Usually, changes to tutor group will not be made after the start of the school year. If your child wishes to change tutor group at the end of the school year, please write to the Head of Pastoral Care, Mr P Baldwin (p.baldwin@laudeladyelizabeth.com), giving reasons.

What if my child is being bullied?

Please keep a record of any case of bullying or suspected bullying and contact your child's tutor, the Head of Pastoral Care, or any teacher, immediately. Do not let your child suffer in silence – the majority of cases of bullying can be dealt with effectively if parents and teachers work together.
